Stamford's New Post Office. Congressman Hill had the satisfaction of telegraphing to Stamford, this week that the appropriation of $150,000 for a Federal building in this $150,000 for a Federal building in this city, had passed the house, and, with the other tiems, was now to go to the Senate, where practically no opposition is anticipated. Mr. Hill has given that item in the bill his special attention for months. He was greatly, perhaps decisively, aided in his fight for the retention of the original liberal sum proposed, by being able to point with order to what corporate Stanford had already done to provide the finest with order to what corporate Stamford had already done to provide the finest of sites for the proposed building. There is little doubt that that fact, backed by Mr. Hill's alert attention to the matter carried the thing through as it was originally proposed while most of the other items in the bill suffered register. suffered reduction, and some were cut out altogether. Well served was Stam-ford by its Congressman in this reat-ter, nor will that service be soon for-gotton,—Stamford Advocate.
